- Anchor Point Films: <https://www.anchorpointfilms.com/dvd/scripture-mysteries>

Note: In addition to the sharing DVDs at the links above, you may also want to include evangelistic meeting messages. If doing this, it is best to include one or two messages per DVD and to sort them by topic rather than only bundling them into sets. That way you can give them out individually and progressively rather than all at once. Be sure to obtain any necessary permissions before duplicating.

Bible Lesson Sets

- It Is Written: <https://itiswritten.shop/bible-guides/bible-study-guide-individuals/>
- Amazing Facts: <https://www.afbookstore.com/collections/study-guides>

Note: Consider displaying the first lesson in one or two Bible study series along with a card that may be used to sign up for the entire series of study guides. Rather than purchase Bible study guides in full sets, carry them by individual lesson. By doing this, you will avoid being left with extra inventory if people stop studying the series before finishing the full set of lessons.

Note: Though they are generally too expensive to leave on a free literature rack, you should keep an inventory of inexpensive Bibles to use as gifts for those who may need one.
